Notice

To make a refund, when the applicable conditions are met, please send us an email at artridge@x.la with the subject "Refund" with the description of your eligibility to refund.

Once we receive your notice, we will email you back without undue delay with the details on how the refund will be made.

Process

The general overview of the process is the following:

We will operate a smart contract, separate from the Platform on which you purchased the Artridge NFT. It will allow you to transfer the Artridge NFT back to us, and we will transfer you the sum in cryptocurrency you initially paid for it minus the Gas Fees for the transfer of NFT back to us.

The details and instructions for access to such a smart contract will be provided in the email that we will send in response to your refund notice.
